

Departure and nomination at Dynamitage TCG

As he has been announcing for a few years ago, Jocelyn Larouche has resigned as General Manager of Dynamitage TCG on September 9th, 2009. Jocelyn devoted himself to the company for many years and kept an exceptional relationship with many of us. Always providing good advices, he listened attentively to his coworkers. He was involved in many committees therefore helping Le Groupe Gilbert in any way possible. He gathered a strong team and can resign with a sense of accomplishment. Thank you for your involvement and loyalty.

We are proud to announce the nomination of Bernard Vachon as General Manager of Dynamitage TCG, succeeding Jocelyn Larouche. Bernard was previously Technical Manager and this nomination completes the transition that was initiated a year prior to Jocelyn's resignation.

Michel Gilbert, President
